Chapter 1 by Astrid

I leaned against the wall, gasping for breath. Glancing around the corner, I saw no one. I decided to sit for a while, though I knew they would be here soon. Sinking down, I put my head in my arms. I wished that I could turn time back. That I could go back to the time when my family was still alive, and I wasn't running from their killers. I could still remember their shining faces, full of life. I closed my eyes, and remembered.
